Items will be listed and priced as follow

DD-Threads has over 6 years' experience and 10,000 + transactions in turning assets into cash for our clients. We have the advantage of working closely with our clients to ensure that we are maximizing profits through Fixed Price Best Offer*, Auctions*, and Free Shipping Offers*.

*Auction: Most of our items do not run on auctions unless directed by the clients.

*Fixed Price Best Offer: This is how we allow shoppers to shop. Buyers can also submit offers, and only reasonable offers are accepted.

*Free Shipping Offers: We offer free shipping on all items that are sold during these special offer periods. Customers are more likely to make an offer, and purchase items when free shipping is offered ($10 dollars is automatically added to the selling price so that you are not affected by the free shipping offers). Here's an example of how that will work: an item that has a resale value of $99 would be listed as $110 with free shipping. Therefore, when you see these items on your invoice, you'll notice that $10 has been deducted from the final sale price.

We personally research the resale value of your goods through comp shopping and reviewing previous sales of similar items. Because DD-Threads offers the best One-on-One service; we work closely with you to ensure we are listing your items for the highest amount possible. If you disagree with how something is priced, please send us an email and we can make arrangements on a proper listing.

Consignment contracts officially start the day your items are listed in our eBay store, and website. We will continue to re-list your items within that same calendar year; unless you have contacted us prior to one year to discuss other options. Once your items are listed, an email is sent to you which includes your own secure personal code, and simple directions on how to follow your auctions.

Once your item sells, you will receive an automated email saying your item has sold. You'll then receive an itemized invoice, and the percentage you receive from the sale.

After the year is up items that have not sold are subject to return once we contact you to arrange shipment. If we are unable to get in contact with you these items will be donated.

Items We Are Unable to List

DD-Thread reserves the right to refuse to list any items we deem are unsellable due to brand name, low resale value, condition or authenticity issues. You will have the option to have your items returned (all return shipping is at your cost of $20 per box) or donated to charity for which you will receive a tax donation slip.

Shill Bidding Policy

In accordance with the terms and conditions of eBay's policy, consignors are prohibited from participating in Shill Bidding, where consignor's bid on their own items with the intent to increase the selling price. In the event a consignor participates in Shill Bidding, DD-Threads reserves the right to take whatever action necessary to insure that the consignor and DD-threads are in compliance with the terms and conditions of eBay's policy. This includes but is not limited to action to compensate for damages or fees and removal of the eBay listing.

Payment Process

Items sold Under $1000.00 then you get 60%

Items sold Over $1000.00 then you get 75%

Items sold over $4000.00 then you get 80%

Our payments operate monthly, and payments are made when you have completed sales between the first and the last day of every month. Your check and invoice will reflect the completed sales from the previous month. For example: your completed sales for January will then be paid out to you on February 1st.

Completed Sales Means: items that have been paid for, shipped, and feedback has been submitted. Buyers have 12 days before they are required to pay. Items that appear to sell one month, may not be considered completed until the following month.

There's no charge for returned items. We allow buyers to return items, within the policy period, and we just simply re-listed your items.

Buyers do not pay for their items are re-listed after the sale is disputed with eBay.

In some cases items that might not sell right away and take longer to sell than others is only because of it's value, and we just waiting for the right buyer to come along. However it's more that likely that 100% of your items will sell within one year. At the end of that year, you are welcome to ask for those items back or, we donate them.
